Itinerary for one day in Malahide

Malahide Castle & Gardens

One of Ireland's premier tourist attractions, set on 260 acres, this magnificent and historic 12th century castle had been home to the Talbot family for over 800 years. The Castle and Gardens were reopened in 2012 with a state of art Visitor Centre and newly accessible Gardens which feature many rare species and are a must for all horticultural enthusiasts. After your visit to the castle, time permitting why not indulge yourself with something to eat and drink in our heritage village. The numerous cafes, restaurants and bars in the village can cater for any and all tastes. Seafood, is naturally, a speciality. If you still have some time to spend in the area why not work off your meal with a coastal walk towards Portmarnock as far as Malahide beach, the sea air and stunning scenery is the perfect way to round off a day in Malahide.
